Bear, Spotted Eagle and Gull were in favor of returning to the States, which was approved and permitted by S.B.

S.B. told them he also was going to come back to the States soon thereafter, but that, just as that ~~premise~~ time the Queen's women had invited him which he had accepted hence could not join them.
So part of the S.B. followers left. Soon after word was received that the S.B. Indians were badly treated at Fort Peck Agency, Mont. and that they were held as captives at Fort Buford. S.B. heard this and at once sent me with two others, Bone Club and young Joe's Horse. A Queen's Officer went along with us. The Indian
