

XI - One of the old men told me that Sitting Bull was about the bravest man the Sioux ever had. What was Sitting Bull's bravest deed?

The Crows were camping at the ¹big bend on the Mesuriv River. The Hunt paper made a charge and stole horses and a big fight was on. A brave Crow met S.B. both having guns met face to face. Both fired at each other at the same time.
The Crow was shot fatally while S.B. was wounded on his foot.

What was considered to be the outstanding deed of bravery, was, it makes no difference he is small children grown up, rich or poor - all alike, he has a heart felt feeling toward them - loves them all and even if a hungry dog peeps into his tipi and if he happens to be eating, he gives part of his food to the dog.
