

IX - I have been told that the Sioux warriors wore eagle feathers to show what their brave deeds had been. What feathers did Sitting Bull wear? I would like to know just what feathers he had a right to wear and why.

Sitting Bull wears his eagle feather laying || cross-ways for bravery.

When he reached the position of Chief
over all the Chiefs, he wore his eagle-feather standing-straight up.