

Hehaul akicita kiu inyou kapemni pi on kata awica unyaupelo Akicita tab la la iwaglamua yuha eya upi ca el ki hum ni wicun you pelo. Tatanke-iyotanke hana nipi kta eiu kiu on awicun yustan pelo. Hehaul wa a na pta enyin kin owasin la wica ka so ta pelo. Wasicu ta woyuha pi pa hi pi ani po eya esa oyate pi kiu munh naron pi ani Wowananon ani on oyate kin ableca hanpi Wanayaron pi ani kin on wasicu la towoyuha pi kin canfi heyayapi ktelo eyaske. Sitting Bull stepi kte kin he wauglake Wicasa wanjo Hesapa el ble wan yanke kin hel ikiyela paha wau el wicasa wan yankiu na lowan han ca etkiya ya he. kiyela ihumin kiu hehaul wicasa qon he ha kikte unkan wanbli. olowan kin lecel ahiyaye Ate oyate kin lena tawe makiya ca gluha iyotui ye wakiye. Le wauyanke kin hehaul on lila wiyukcau Hie lecel ka ca wauglake.
 S. B. Iye ktepi kiu hehaul waubli kin he itaucan kta wauglake Unkan lehautu kiu wanbli kin he mazaaka kin el yanke Mau mazaaka ui he oyate kiu kaska awicaye.

I have been told that Sitting Bull was made war chief of all the nation because he was the bravest man of all. I would like to know what was the bravest deed of Sitting Bull.

Sitting Bull and his warriors fought with the Crow Indians close to the big bend on the Missouri river. A hostile Crow Indian charged with a gun and Sitting Bull had a gun too. They both charged and both shot at the same time. Sitting Bull killed his enemy and his enemy shot Sitting Bull's foot. The bravest deed is when they had a big battle with the Hohe's and he charged, and killed his enemy at the age of fourteen years old.
 This was the first brave deed of Sitting Bull.

I have heard that Sitting Bull once fought with the Crows and had only three arrows. The Crow Indian had no arrows at all. So Sitting Bull shot two arrows where the Crow could get them, and then charged him and killed him with the one arrow. Is this true? Where did this happen? When?
 Yes this a fact but One Bull doesn't remember it just when it happened.