

THOMAS KEARNY
COUNSELLOR AT LAW
111 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

To friend "Stanley Vestal"

Whose interest for the "truths" which ruled the actions of the hero of his great work, "The Happy Warrior of the Old West" stands staunch against the "true facts" which his critics (probably partisans only of General Stephen Watts Kearny) may by own-research ferret out; and whose love of truth was large enough to recommend to others the viewpoint of General Kearny's great nephew in this article; the latter however bearing alike a nearness physical and spiritual kindship to General Kearny's nephew - Major General Philip Kearny <sup>his grandfather</sup> whom Scott called "the bravest man I ever knew and the most helpful soldier"; Thomas Kearny

See Ray Campbell: I got a first copy of article + am sending it to you; you may show it to others; if you care by separate

+ on men, attend this to the best.

May 24 - 1932

and