Dear Prof. Campbell,
 Yours of the 15th came this morning, ~~it~~ <sup>rather</sup> was at the office awaiting me.

There is a man in Kansas City whom I want you to see on your return. He was the man who wrote, under discretion the last letter before the order was given <sup>by McLaughlin</sup> to bring Sitting Bull in to Fort Yates. He is a quiet fellow but a man of good judgment and fair in disposition. He is a good friend of mine and is a gold mine of information for your purposes.

Now in regard to the interpreters. The expense will be very light. I'll see to that. Many of the Indians have been spoiled by Jewish hands. Some of them refuse to be interviewed but with my acquaintance I expect to open up opportunities for you that would otherwise be closed.
