OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT

LEWIS F. CRAWFORD, SUPERINTENDENT

Eagle to make up a few braids of provided for you to take back with you.

Last year I gave One Bull three tanned beckskins to make himself a dance shirt. He is a relative of Fitting Bull's. He occupied the same tent with Fitting Bull in the Little Big Horn. He is making a map for me and I hope he will have it finished when we see him. In my former contacts with these Indians I have laid the foundation for any information they can give - and it will cost nothing. His memory is quite good too. Best Soldier is one of the younger Indians who was in the Little Big Horn - not a hostile but simply out there to hunt. He went out with Rain-in-the-Face who had recently escaped from Fort Abraham Lincoln.
Crazy Walking an intelligent old timer, I am sorry to say is dead. Red Tomahawk, who shot
