

September 14, 1929.

Mr. Lewis F. Crawford,
State Historical Society,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

My dear friend:

We finished with the Indians and Mrs. Wagoner at noon Saturday and reached home Tuesday morning. I found Mr. Carignan quite willing to talk and full of information. He asked me to give you his regards. His address is 3106 Benton Boulevard.

I am extremely grateful to you for your kindness in opening the doors to me in Dakota. I trust that the book will not disappoint you. As I told you I wish to dedicate the book to you. Under separate cover I am sending you a copy of my novel just out. I shall be glad to know what you think of it.

You got away before I thought to ask what I owe you for expenses and interpreters fees. I paid Mrs. Wagoner $10.00 and settled with Zahn and Mrs. Brown also, but I know that you too were at some expense. I wish to bear this. Please let me know what I owe you.

Yours cordially,

W. S. CAMPBELL.