

September 23, 1929.

Mr. Lewis F. Crawford,
State Historical Society,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Dear Mr. Crawford:

I should very much like to have the two articles you speak of, namely: Robinson's "Passing of the Old Medicine Man" and the article by Mrs. One Bull Brown in the Word Carrier. I would also like to see a copy of that book on Mrs. Kelly's captivity which you promised me.

I am glad to have your permission to dedicate my book to you.

I must insist on paying your expenses which were all for my benefit. You may expect my book in the near future. Please give my kindest regards to your daughter.

Cordially yours,

W. S. CAMPBELL.