

September 25, 1929.

Mr. Lewis F. Crawford,
State Historian,
Bismarck, North Dakota.

Dear Mr. Crawford:

In my last letter I find I neglected to ask you for Reverend Reed's address in McLaughlin. I remember you said I should communicate with him.

By the way, who has agent McLaughlin's book of documents? You told me, but I have forgotten.

Yours cordially,

W. S. CAMPBELL.