Cambridge, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Porter:

Thanks for your cordial letter and for the list of your historical publications, some of which were unknown to me. Particularly I wish to thank you for your autographed copy of "Christ in the Bread Line." I have read it with great interest and pleasure and I don't mind saying that I prefer the poems by your hand to the others in the volume, such as I like them all. You have something to say and say it most effectively.

Yours faithfully,

W. S. Campbell
