High Eagle, Stephen Two Bears, Big Head, Gall, John Grass, Fire Heart, High Bear, Thunder Hawk, Bear's Rib, Hairy Chin, Gray Eagle, Mad Bear, and Sitting Bull.

I know you are an expert in Indian names, so I am going to ask you to tell me the English meaning and the correct Dakota spelling of these names, which I find in Fanny Kelly's book: Slohan, Hunkiapa, Wickunkiapa, Makatunke, Chahompa Ska, Egosegalonicha. I suppose she spelled some of them wrong. One other, the chief who held her, Ottawa, which she calls Silver Horn. Is this right?

I see that one M.L. McLaughlin was agency interpreter in 1882-3. Who was this?

I have just signed contracts for the life of Sitting Bull, and must go to work on the writing of it soon, so I hope you can send me the answers to my questions pretty soon.

Since I saw you I have published another book about the old days at Bent's Fort on the Arkansas. The title is 'DOBE WALLS. If you would like to have a copy, let me know, and I will send you one.

Please give my best wishes to your folks when you see them. I spent a very happy time with them last summer.

Cordially your friend,

W.E. CAMPBELL
