

delegate to Washington. The list of names contained in your letter were the delegates. It was Walking Eagle (Nawabli manii) who went to Washington, and not Black Prairie Dog. The latter Indian is still living here. M.L. McLaughlin is (Mary Louise) wife of Major McLaughlin. She was not employed as a regular interpreter but helped her husband (Major M.L.) in that capacity. Fanny Kelly was personally restored by Sitting Bull. Sitting Bull was crucified, but he did not go thru the gate. Nine Indians took Mrs. Kelly to the Fort. While she was a captive, she stayed with Crawler (Slohan) and his family.