

Did McLaughlin carry out his threat to cut off the ghost dancers from the ration rolls?

If not, would they have had enough to eat. That is, were the rations enough to feed them?

How many head of beef were issued to the Sitting Bull camp on Grand River at Bullhead Station per week? What did the steers weigh on the average? How many people did they feed?

How much beef per head was issued to those who went to the Agency?

When Sitting Bull was to be arrested, they were told to take a wagon along. Why was this? Did they expect to have to bring in the body?