

not come straight into his camp myself". And that from the cruel Apache Chief, the head of the most notorious Indian band in all our history. He and Lieutenant Gatewood had been friends. This given one an idea of the Indians value of friendship.

Secretary Wilbur, or Assistant Secretary Dixon might like to write the introduction.

Please write me an outline, in detail if possible, of your idea of the book, and I will take up the matter with the people above mentioned. I might be able to secure a good publisher, especially if the introduction is written by Curtis or Wilbur.

No more at present.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) GEORGE P. AHERN.
