

December 27, 1929.

Major George P. Ahern,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Major Ahern:

In my eager acceptance of the invitation to attend and speak at the dinner of the Order of Indian Wars on January 25th, I quite neglected to ask if the Order has any machinery for taking care of the expenses of speakers. However, I thought it could do no harm to make an unofficial inquiry of you, in order to complete my plans for the trip.

I look forward with great pleasure to that evening, and also to meeting you.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Yours very faithfully,

W.S.CAMPBELL