Dear Captain Campbell

Your letter was received.

Mrs Russell, the friend of Pitting Bull was in & out of Washington & I missed her. She is now at her home

Mrs Wm O. Russell 48 Cedar Lane Way Boston Mass.

Her maiden name was Belle Battles - one of Pitting Bull's children was named for her - I believe

I wrote the story <sup>to you</sup> of Belle's death while I was at Randall

We had a meeting of delegations interested in legislation for the Indians - I was asked to open the meeting it was held in the Cosmos Club last Sunday. Robert Gibson who acted as secretary of the meeting, asked me if I would not leave my notes on Pitting Bull with the Bulls man or at some other peaceful use in the future. I told her you had them & would make use of them

In writing to Mrs Russell you may use my name

Your illustration of Pitting Bull is very like Giff's photo -

In speaking of Pitting Bull at the meeting I emphasized how poor he was & had Indian & not a reservation Indian
