

as Wakutemani³ tells it. When S. B. was brought out of his log house, he was only seven or eight feet from the police who were holding S. B. he saw High Eagle on the left and Little Eagle on the right each holding his arms. He saw Shore Head and Bullhead right behind S. B. just then Crowfoot spoke up and said you have always said you would never go with the Indian police why have you backed out on your word

Do you want to be a miserable prisoner a slave taken away to be punished for nothing? S. B. said alright I refuse to go, then he gave the order ho! po ho! po meaning now is the time or (act at once) four men had come around the corner of the house they all had their guns ready these men were, Black Bird, Spotted Horn, Catch the Bear strike the kettle. Catch the Bear shot, Bullhead as soon as, Shore Head shot S. B. Then strike the kettle shot Shore Head. Red tomohawk stood little in front of the police. also Eagle man but as soon as these shots were over