Dear Mr. Campbell:

As per your suggestion to continue working with some old timers - in connection with Sitting Bull and other material I proceeded to see Sitting Bull's wife and her son William - who are located twenty five miles North of the Agency.

I called at this place but the Mrs. Sitting Bull was not home - she had gone to some other district on the reservation - but I had a very good talk with the son who passes as William Sitting Bull. He being deaf and dumb I had to hire an old timer to talk for me by sign language.

You know this man is only a step-son, but some of the show people have advertised him as the nearest blood relative of Sitting Bull surviving and he seems to cling to that idea.

In a conversation I had with a show interpreter I mentioned that fact and he was greatly surprised for he was under the impression that William was really the
