Dear Mr. Higheagle:

I have your card. I am glad you have been gathering the material I asked for. It is slow work getting funds from my publisher, but I am sending you a money-order in this letter for thirty dollars in advance. I shall be glad to see you, and talk over what you have to tell me.

My home is in Norman, twenty miles south of Oklahoma City. I have given my home address and telephone number at the top of this letter. Please call me up when you get to town, and I will help you find the place.

Cordially yours,

W.S.CAMPBELL
