Dear Sir:

Referring to your letter of July 24th
I am sorry to inform you that Mr. Jenness is at present in the field.

We have in our collections three pairs
of moccassins which are attributed to Sitting Bull.
I do not think we have any published material except the standard authorities to which you of course have access.
I shall refer your letter to Mr. Jenness on his return and should he have further material available, I am sure that he will communicate with you promptly.

Yours very sincerely,
