Dear Sir - First I thank you for your approval of "American" - thank you a heap!

Yes, I know that most of the writings concerning sitting Bull are bunk & I did not know him - but perhaps I can help you just the same. And if I can, I will, gladly. Old Bull-rock & Plenty-Coups, Cold-wind, & Short-bull (Crows) may be able to help. They knew sitting Bull and fought him, in sure. I'll be home, address Somers, next, after June 1 - If you should find it necessary to talk to these Crows (and they are aged men) before I see you I believe my name might be of use (Great Sign-talker) - notice I left off the "Great" in the book - Frank Shively is a fine interpreter so is Luke Rock. I'd first see James Sloan, chief clerk at Crow Agency & made my arrangements. John Frost is also an important man on the Reservation. May I, as an old
