Dear Mr. Kelly:

On returning from my vacation abroad, I was happy to find your letter and its amusing enclosures. In fact, the letter was more amusing than the enclosures, and a lot more authentic. I have seldom seen an article with so many errors in it. I think I know where he got some of his misinformation, but some of it looks as if he had dreamed it up himself.

This chap does a nobler thing than record history--he invents it.

With all good wishes.

Yours cordially,

W. S. CAMPBELL
