October 23, 1933.

Dear Professor Campbell:

This is to acknowledge receipt of the manuscript NOTES AND SOURCES IN INDIAN HISTORY, together with the ten photographs and three maps.

The contract has been prepared and is ready for signing today.

May I express to you our extreme happiness in having in our lists the name of the most brilliant and distinguished writer on the American Indian. It is the interest of men like yourself that is, in the last analysis, the only reward one has in directing a university press.

Cordially yours,

Joseph A. Brandt
