

which were picked up on the battlefield - either Custer's Last Stand or the Battle of Wounded Knee.
It's been a while since I was at the museum so I'm a bit hazy on that point!

I do know, however, that there are some of Sitting Bull's possessions there, also old photographs of his prison, and I think a drawing that he made. It is my recollection that the collection was donated to the museum by a man who lived as a child on the post where Sitting Bull was imprisoned.

I shall look forward to your book with much interest, as I have been interested in the Sioux Indians for many years.
