Dear Mr. Higheagle:

In my last letter I forgot to ask you to give me the addresses of White Bull, the nephew of Sitting Bull, and of your friend De Roquebraine and of any other old timers at Pine Ridge or elsewhere whom I might visit on my way north next summer. I particularly wish to see White Bull since you say he is so enthusiastic about my book.

Please give me the meaning of the following words: Ci-ka-yo, Itazipa Waunskate, and Wuhambla.

Very cordially your friend,
