

not give up the original. I remember my uncle had the picture of sitting Bull the first picture of a savage Indian I ever saw. and I am glad he had the replica in this historical account of his early life as a cattle King with Teddie Roosevelt and others. Please, if you come: bring with you every thing needed to copy what I have of interest and value in your account

Respectfully
Mrs Anna Hertzog