

9

but just two or three that I know is my brother White Bull (Pte Sam Hunka, and I myself, other all have passed away or died

11) Answer to question number eleven (After the fight the dead were buried on top the hill or mountain they were laid side by side, upon the rocks.

12) As I told you before hand the Sioux and Arapahos were always been a bitter foes against each other as when they were carrying false messages back & forth