

- HANS HUTH - Artist and architect, collaborator with the Historic Sites division of the National Park Service and now on the staff of the Art Institute of Chicago.
- LEIGH JERRARD - Engineer in the land department of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad.
- HILTON IRA JONES - President and owner of the Hixone Laboratories.
- KENNETH O'CONNOR - Director of Red Cross activities in army camps in Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin.

---W---

NEW CORRESPONDING MEMBERS

The following are new corresponding members of WESTERNERS:

- NORMAN BASSETT - President of Demco Library Supplies, Madison, Wis.
- MERRILL G. BURLINGAME - Head of the department of history, Montana State College, Bozeman, Mont.
- LEE H. CORNELL - Geologist with the Stanolind Oil and Gas Company, Wichita, Kan.
- EARLE R. FORREST - Feature writer for the Washington (Pa.) Reporter.
- MAURICE FRINK - Editor of the editorial page of the Elkhart, (Ind.) Daily Truth.
- HERBERT KRAUSE - Head of the English department, Augustana College, Sioux Falls, S.D.
- CARL COKE RISTER - Head of the department of history, University of Oklahoma, Norman, Okla.

NEW TYPE OF MEMBERSHIP

Because of numerous requests for copies of the Brand Book which have come from libraries, historical societies and other organizations interested in Western history and Western culture, WESTERNERS have established a new type of membership. It is called an "institutional membership" and is open to organizations such as those mentioned above. Membership dues are $3 a year and entitle the institutional member to copies of the Brand Book as issued, for a year, including back issues containing the following original articles:

- "THEY DONE HIM WRONG! - There's no Historical Evidence That Jesse James Ever Robbed a Bank or Held up a Train." By Don Russell. (Vol. 1, No. 1)
- "DR. EDWIN JAMES" - By Dr. Irving S. Cutter. (Vol. 1, No. 2)
- "SOLON ROBINSON, WESTERNER AND NATIONALIST" By Herbert A. Kellar (Vol. 1, No. 3)
- "BOUQUET IN WILD LAUREL - A Whiff from the Old West" By E. Douglas Branch (Vol. 1, Nos. 4 and 5)
- "TRAPPER TRAILS TO THE SISK-KE-DEE" By Carl P. Russell. (Vol. 1, No. 6)

---W---

ACROSS THE GREAT DIVIDE

The ranks of WESTERNERS were broken for the first time by death on September 30 when DOUGLAS C. McMURTRIE, a charter member, died of a heart attack at his home in Evanston, Ill. A sketch of his useful career and a tribute to his devotion to the cause which WESTERNERS serve will appear in the next issue of the Brand Book.