My Dear Mr. Campbell:

I hope you and your daughter are getting along fine in work and health.

As for our conditions my daughter and I are getting along nicely. Will you please kindly ask your daughter that I want some of her old clothing, pillow cases, and sheetings, because I am really in need of clothing I get a check from my husband but I have to get groceries and clothing for the children and this leaves me out.

And I will kindly do her a favor too, what size of shoes does she wear? I will make her a pair of moccasins to rest her feet too. And I will
