

YOUNG MAN AFRAID OF HIS HORSES, chief of the Oglala Sioux, was one of the leading lieutenants of Red Cloud in the war of 1866 to prevent the construction of the Montana railroad in the Powder river region. He died peacefully on a South Dakota reservation.

GEN. GEORGE ALEXANDER (SANDY) FORSYTH, Civil war hero and renowned Indian fighter, won early distinction on the field at Five Forks. In one of his encounters with the Indians, the battle of Beecher's Island in 1868, his resourcefulness saved his band of scouts from an overwhelming force of redskins.
