Dear Friend:

Many thanks for your last communication of Sept. 15th 1929. I feel happy to know, that you had reached your destination safely after much trouble on this long journey. I have interviewed of late again Ben White and also tried to get some information from Gallus Greysagle. However his memory is so poor that we could not get any satisfactory answer at all. I send you what I have, but it is very little. Ben White lost his first memorandum and now can not find it any more. I feel sorry, as there was some information, which I cannot give you on account of this loss.

I hope however that great knowledge has come to you, during your sojourn at Fort Yates.

Expressing my sincere good wishes to you again

I am most respectfully,
Yours

P. S. Best wishes and sincerest regards to Mr. Smith and Mr. McCoil.

Father Bernard, O. S. B.
