

exactly I do not know - and that she was frequently seen in the company of Sitting Bull. However I believe, that the rumor of her being the mother of one of Sitting Bull's son, is without foundation.
Different stories were circulated around here about Mrs. Watten for a time, as for instance, that Sitting Bull wanted to marry her, etc. but the truth of such rumors and stories could never be established.
Without a doubt Mrs. Watten was a peculiar character, still about her morals were such, that nothing really detrimental could be said about them, as far at least, as my knowledge goes.

Hoping you will pardon my long delay in the matter of answering your nice letter of March 13, 1929 I am with best wishes and sincerest regards
