

read it.

For the past 22 years I have been a close student of American-Ethnology. Mr. J. Walter Fewkes of the Bureau of Ethnology of Smithsonian Institute was a very good friend to me and always encouraged my efforts. I have a very fine library as a gift from him.

I was adopted by the Seneca Indians by Chief Freeman Johnson, this year Pres. of the existing Iroquois League of Nation and given the name of Yaewanota. I have many friends among them.

How long my programs can last on this small Radio station is problematical but I will continue to speak of your work as I can do so. I have been a Radio Star known for my Indian song and Legend programs for some years. I am known by the name of Renie Burdett, a Pen Name. I am a member of the National American Pen Women and Cleveland Writer's Clubs.

I have written lyrics and libretto to a Zuni Indian Opera. It was given in pantomime form both in Cleveland and here successfully. The music to the Opera is wonderful and is the work of Bernhard-L Jewett, Dean of Buffalo Institute of Music, N.Y:

Trusting you put this over in a big way, and hoping some day to meet you, if you are in N