

with word that white troops were planning to come from various directions to kill off all the Indians and were away from their agencies.

Sitting Bull said to assemble at the mouth of the Rosebud.

There were many Santee Sioux about this part and had engaged in the 1862 warfare in Minn. These refused to go.

Many renegades however did heed the call.

It indicates that Sitting Bull's "Military Intelligence" Dept was on the job!

Sincerely yours
W. G. Brown