

September 14, 1929.

W

Mrs. Josephine Waggoner,
Keldron, South Dakota.

Dear Mrs. Waggoner:

We reached home Tuesday morning after driving through mud and rain for nearly a thousand miles. I look back upon my visit in your country with great pleasure and wish to thank you for your kind help there. I feel much regret that I had no more time to talk with you and your husband about Sitting Bull and I hope that you will write me anything you think of which we did not discuss.

I shall be very grateful for the Hunkpapa Calendar which you promised me. I shall not need the drawings so much as the explanation and the dates.

I am enclosing a sheet or two which I wish you would fill out and return to me as soon as convenient. I want this book to show the Indian point of view and so far as possible wish to use Indian names for the people and places mentioned in the book. With kindest regards and good wishes to you both, I remain

Yours cordially,

W. S. CAMPBELL.