Dear Mrs. Waggoner:

I am happy to hear from you, and to know that you and your husband are well. We have had good luck this winter, too. This has been the hardest winter and the deepest snow we have had in more than twenty years. But so far we have not been sick.

I am glad you like the book I gave you. It has been a close friend of mine for many years.

The book by Fisk I have read. I was unable to take it very seriously. Very few of the books are reliable, I find.

I shall look forward eagerly to your next letter. I all hope you can answer my questions, particularly about the long story of McLaughlin's relations with Sitting Bull. Please let me have everything you know about this, with the dates and names of all the parties and witnesses, if possible. I want all the details.

With kindest regards to you both, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

W.S.CAMPBELL
