and he would not go at his own expense - Altho S. B. was willing to use his own team and camping out fit. After this S. B. believed th at Mr. Laughlin was the one who wished him to be put to death. about Frank Druard he was not a sandwich & lander, Ed Monroe who is still living on the Niobrara River knew him. He was a mixed blood of some other tribe part Crow & he committed a crime, killing some one & escaped to Montana he was driving mail when Sitting Bull's band captured him. They wanted to kill him but S B saved him and kept him as interpreter three or four years He joined Gen Crook's command as a scout against S. B. was at The Custer or with Crook on Goose Creek when Custer was killed Big Bat or Baptist Purier was also a scout then he was with Gen Mills at the Shin Butte Battle the fall of 1875. Will have to go to the ind camp to ans the rest. please send me some thin paper & envelopes
