

They can<sup>3</sup> stand to be insulted and take
offence at any thing
at these times, they
throw up things
at each other and
make vaunted
speeches, when these performances are over
then the gift giving takes place: This is what Bull head meant
when he told S. B.
that he was insulted
and did not take offence S. B. <sup>was</sup> too well acquainted with the customs to loose his temper, to be offended when he knew why these
