

There was no Police at the Shop when I made his coffin there was no Officers there to give any Orders for a marker

I could see nothing of the Chief But his face after he was shot broad one of the Police struck him in the face with a 4, 5 foot long marker his face to one side with his mouth open his left ear a frame been I admired the Chief for his Bravery & generalship from the war father he was a man for that & a that
