My dear Watson:

While I was east on my leave of absence, a mutual friend suggested that you might have copies of the mimeographed proceedings of The Westerners Club on the day they discussed the Custer fight. As I am doing some writing along that line, I thought you might be willing to lend me the data if you have it. I will take good care of it and return it to you within a few months, and if I should fail to return it as soon as you think proper, I shall be grateful if you will call my attention to that fact.

I have been digging around in the National Archives of the Library of Congress, and I am now heading down into Texas and Colorado to complete my research.

I often think of the fine time I had in your home and hope you will come down this way sometime.

I shall be back on the campus after the middle of January.

Cordially yours,

W. S. CAMPBELL
