Mr. George D. Wolfe
509 East Scott Avenue
Knoxville, Tennessee

Dear Mr. Wolfe:

Thanks for your letter. I shall be happy to have you read my account entitled "The Man who Killed Custer," which appeared in the current issue (February) of AMERICAN HERITAGE, which you should be able to obtain at the newsstand or by writing to the publishers (The American Heritage Publishing Company, 551 Fifth Avenue, New York 17, New York).

My book SITTING BULL, CHAMPION OF THE SIOUX, has just been issued by the University of Oklahoma Press with more pictures and considerable new material. If you care to send me $5.00 for the book and $.25 for postage, I will be glad to send you a copy.

Cordially yours,

W.S. CAMPBELL
