

No. 14. - S. B. counts coup on a white man by striking him with a bow. He wears a jacket and bandana captured from some of his victims. He carries a quiver and a bow.

Note: - Eight other coups on white men are shown practically duplicating No. 14.

No. 17 shows one of the white men, his torso stripped and hairy.
Color of horse?

" Headress of part of a blanket, + indicates that perhaps he has taken the coat of. @

ate enemy *

- # 17 - hairy white man -
- # 18 - W-man - has torso red (slit? - blood?)
- # 19 hairy white man
- # 20 W M has bandanna + holster
(sawed off shotgun)