Hence Alone (my baby) loved by every one.

*The owl was used as one of the things to pacify the crying and whining of the Indian child. There is a story where an Indian baby was crying and nothing could stop it. Just then an owl was hooting. The mother got impatient and turned child out of the tent. This was during the early evening. Pretty soon the child ceased to cry. The mother went out and to her shock discovered the owl really carried the child away into the woods. Later the child was recovered but since that time the little owl was considered dangerous to the naughty child.

One Bull sang the following song his uncle used to sing about the eagle.
The words are suppose to be the eagle speaking.

Ate Ayate Tawe makiyin na
Father The Tribe of birds has given me as mine

Yuha iyotiye wakiye
With them hard times I'm having

Sung by One Bull, Sitting Bull sang this at ceremonial sweat baths . Words are supposed to the Great Spirit speaking.

Maka kin le wakagele
4 This earth The creator I am

Oyate yankipi nunwe
Ye Tribes may you live

Maka kin le wakagelo
This earth the Creator I am

↑
Oyate wanlakapi nunwe
YĖ Tribes May you behold it .(realize)

Sung by One Bull. Mother Song. Sitting Bull sang this song dedicated to his Mother Tatiyopa wakan waste -- Pretty Door

Ate makata u mayelo
Great Spirit to earth He has sent me
