Dear Mr. Murphy:

Thanks very much for your interesting letter and its enclosures. I found your pictures quite amusing. Thanks for letting me see them. I am returning them, herewith, as you requested.

In my book on Sitting Bull, I have a statement from the man you mentioned who guarded Sitting Bull's dead body, but I was pleased to know that his widow and daughter are still with us. Perhaps I had better write to her and ask.

Cordially yours,

W.S. CAMPBELL
