to retreat. History tells the rest. There are teepee poles on the high hills west of the battle ground & undoubtedly here is where Crazy Horse left his non combattant while he drove Reynolds & Crook to Fort McKinney. If you care to come & map the Battle field do so at your convenience.
A Mr. Gatchell, a druggist in Buffalo wyo, was over this night with one of the scouts some 40 years ago.

In reaching Moorhead you can come via Cheyenne, Casper, Buffalo, Clearmont & Arvada wyo. or from the east New Castle Gillette, Arvada, Moorhead is 40 miles
N. of Arvada which is on the Custer
Battlefield Hiway

Respectfully
Frank F. Kelsey
