

To our friends in the Caxton Club and the Westerners:

The Branding Iron Press

announces

D-30

the third in its distinguished western series

North from Texas

“Incidents in the Early Life of a Range Cowman in Texas, Dakota, and Wyoming, 1852-1883” by James C. Shaw

This is Jim Shaw's colorful story of his early life in Texas, the long drive in 1879 with Longhorn cattle to Dodge City, Ogallala, the Indian Reservation at Pine Ridge in Dakota, and finally into Wyoming. Told in the dynamic idiom of the Cattlemen's Frontier, Shaw also draws a sharp picture of his work on trail, ranch (the famous Duck Bar of Teshmacher & DeBillier), and range. The story has authority as well as interest, for Shaw attained significant recognition as president of the Wyoming Stock Growers Association.

Edited, with introduction & notes by Herbert O. Brayer
Illustrated by David T. Vernon

Designed & printed at the Printing Office of Philip Reed Published in a limited, numbered edition for collectors of distinguished Western Americana

Orders will be filled in the order in which they are received until the edition is exhausted.

Price $7.50 net prepaid

Order from The Branding Iron Press

Box 244, Evanston, Illinois