

described, but all of which contributed to the interest of the scene, and to elevate the man selected in the estimation of all the white men present.

The election over the Council was broken up.

Daily Missouri Republican
November 24, 1851