

SOME ACCOUNT OF SITTING BULL

AS AN INDIAN TRADER

Pierre Garreau's Trade-Chief

"I told every trader who came to our camp that I did not want any favors from him -- that I wanted to trade with him fairly, giving full value for what I got. But the traders wanted me to trade with them on no such terms .... They told me if I did not accept what they gave me in trade they would get the government to fight me."

Sitting Bull.