

M.C. went out many dances & falling from exhaustion, among them Louis S.B., (S.B. Relative) - she realized he was feigning, grabbed him & accused him - all laughed & he smiled sheepishly - He helped her send 75 wagon loads out of S.B. camp.

S.B. left mid tent & went to own home.

Story spread that S.B. ^{was} going to Pine Ridge to join dances there (but probably not true) - Ind. Police believed it & that it time to arrest him - 4 A.M.
Mon. 12-15 - fatal result

Page 189-192. - collections of Nebr. State Hist.
Soc. - Stories of Albert Wathorn - Lincoln Neb. - 1911 - Vol. 16.